“ I am his oldest child. I no nothing about this man; how he lived his life, what made him happy, if he felt love for others, or how he died. This is tragic, in that he is as disconnected in death as he was in life. My heart breaks once again. I am his daughter, also. I havent seen him since I was 8. I would love to talk to you. My mom wont talk about him. Anne, I just saw your message. Look me up on facebook or LinkedIn and friend me. Id be happy to connect with you!
