Avrey Jane Walker was born in Bend, Oregon on March 12, 2003 on October 26, 2013 at the age of 10 she earned her angel wings; she was a fifth grader at John Tuck Elementary. Although Avrey spent 6 of her 10 years of life fighting cancer, she was full of life She loved camping, rafting, dancing, dressing up, spending time with her friends and family and her 3 dogs and 2 ferrets. Avrey is survived by her father Aaron Walker, her mother Christal Walker and her big sister Maddy Walker. Avrey was a true example of living your life to the fullest and never giving up. She was a true warrior in every sense of the word. We will be forever proud of her and her ability to have fun no matter the circumstances. She was the strongest kid we have ever known. We will love and miss her every day until we meet again, in a few minutes. “ My heart is heavy with grief to hear of the passing of Avrey. My family and I attended a fund raiser for her and could not believe the support of our community. But it shouldnt have surprised me because 5 years ago my sister died of leukemia and during her illness our community stepped up to help with her expenses also. My mom who is 89 lost her oldest daughter and has never gotten over it. She so badly wants to talk to Averys mom and her heart knows how yours feels. Mrs. Avery, my mom wants you to know that she is praying for you and your family, and when and if the time ever comes she would love to talk to you. You can reach her through me at my email, grieptheresa@yahoo.com. Your little angel is up in heaven with God, no more pain will she ever feel again. May God be with you always and especially right now in your time of grief. Much love and prayers always. Theresa Griep and Mary Engels
