

Bidwell Bud William Alexander

February 3, 1943 - September 13, 2012

Through the years, he was an avid and successful team roper with many wins and championships. He taught many cowboys and cowgirls how to rope and be successful. His door and arena were always open to those in need. In the later years, he was chute boss at many NW rodeos. He was a mentor to rodeo judges and served as a director in several rodeo associations. Bud was a member of the Northwest Pro Rodeo Assn and the Pro Rodeo Cowboys Assn, to name just a couple. When it came to family, many hunting trips and general outdoor excursions were enjoyed by all. The family includes his beloved wife of 46 years, Diana and their son, Bob as well as a host of friends. A remembrance of his life will be held in conjunction with the NW Pro Rodeo Year End Finals at the Crook County Fair Grounds. It will held Sunday, Sept. 23, 2012 at 10:00AM in the Carey Foster Hall. Those who wish, may make memorial contributions to the Partners in Care Hospice 2075 NE Wyatt Ct. Bend, OR 97701.
