

Charles Chuck Dale Knorr

March 13, 1956 - July 3, 2015

Redmond, Oregon Charles "Chuck" Dale Knorr blessed this world with his kind heart and sense of humor from March 13, 1956 until July 3, 2015. He was 59 years old. Chuck was born to Floyd "Duffy" Dale and Patricia Jean (Cain) Knorr in Los Angeles, CA. Chuck was a gifted artist, but decided to pursue his passion for mechanics. He worked at various shops, mainly in Redmond. He operated Chaz Automotive for many years. "The luck of Chuck" was coined after him because of his ability to fix the unfixable. On August 21, 1989 he married Margaret (Davis) Knorr. They have three beautiful, equally talented children: Shantae, Gabby, and Skyler. On March 8, 2013 he was blessed with a grandson, Azariah. Chuck is survived by his wife, children, father, half brother Duffy Dale Dereta and his family; brother, Dick and his family, as well as his sister Tammy Croxen and her family. He is preceded in death by his grandparents; mother Patty, and his nephew Michael. Chuck will always, always be remembered by his friendliness, good nature, sense of humor and many pranks. A celebration of life will be held at the Redmond Alano Club on July 25, 2015 at 1:30 PM. All are welcome to attend. Contributions may be made to Redmond Alano Club, 337 W. Antler and 4th, Redmond, Oregon.
