

Charlotte Ann Craig

December 16, 1943 - November 10, 2018

Charlotte Ann Craig Born December 16, 1943 ~ Died November 10, 2018
Charlotte Craig was born in Oran, Missouri to Marvin and Margaret Craig. She was their first child, with two brothers and two sisters to follow. She moved to Powell Butte, Oregon with her parents, one brother and two sisters. Then to Terrebonne, Oregon a few years later and along came her second brother twenty eight years her latter. She lived in her family home for 48 years. She and her sister lived there together since 1998. She passed at home without warning, recovering from surgery. Charlotte was proceeded in death by her father Marvin A. Craig, her mother Margaret C. Craig and her brother Marvin A. Craig Jr. and survived by her sister Kim Barnett, her husband Richard Barnett and their sons Dylan and Logan; sister Janet E. Craig; brother Scott C. Craig, his wife Amber L. Craig and their children Cole and Chawndra; sister-in-law Myrna Craig and her children Mike and Sue; and nephew Steve J. Murphy that she helped raise when her brother went off to Vietnam. Charlotte enjoyed having family and friends come to visit. She also enjoyed making quilts, crocheting, embroidery and other creative type things. Charlotte collected dolls and many other nick knacks. We are all blessed to have shared life by her side.
