“ Dan, you taught me a lot about semiconductors and life. I remember you being funny and taking the lighter side in life. You always had a smile on your handsome face. It was the 1990s and you often spoke lovingly of your children. You will be missed! Terese

“ Please accept my sincerest sympathy upon the passing of your beloved brother and Father,Dan. Dan and I worked together for several years at Sears. He was a ball of fire and fun to be around although at times he had me pulling my hair out. A very intelligent young man, with an inquisitive mind, there was never a dull moment when Dan was around. Your family can be very proud of him as he was admired and liked by his peers and many friends.. He was also very proud of his family and Son Daughters. He will be missed. May God be with his family.

“ Mike, Sorry I missed your name on my comment. You will recognize some of the memories of the games and Candy Lady better than the younger kids. Thinking of all of you. Peggy

“ Dear Molly and Sean, Mary Ann told me of Dans passingIm so sorry for your loss. Many good memories of all of you: the baseball games at Kilgores, going to the Candy Ladys for little pinkies, playing in and on your pond, etc. Dan is one person who was central to me keeping my hair short all of these years a wierd memory I know, but with my hair still short, I often think of him. You and Dans kids are in my thoughts. Love, Peggy

“ You were such a blessing on this planet. When I reflect on it, you are probably one of the only men I have ever met who was consistently kind to me and who I never heard make a sexist remarks once. Thank you for all you did for me and for the children you brought into this world, I hope you continue to inspire them to do good every day. Love, Michele

“ Oh my gosh, the memories of Dan are endless, priceless, and irreplaceable. Dan was my amazingly protective friend growing up, he was always looking out for my friends and I, lending an ear and a strong shoulder, with a wry sense of humour and a sardonic smile. His backward bending knees so cracked me up, the quick wit, and endless energy always ignited people around him, pulling everyone into his vortex. Dan told me that life was about grabbing every moment, when I was a kid of 15, and I bought it. lock, stock, and smoking barrel. He was sooooo my hero as a young girl, and made sure that my standards in a man were set high. Hats off, Daniel Dacey. All my love, Theresa.
