

Doris Virginia Ray

December 31, 1925 - December 12, 2012

Doris Virginia Featherston was born in Ontario, Oregon on December 31, 1925, the youngest of the eleven children of Frank L. and Pearl E. Willoughby Featherston. She graduated from Vale Union High School. In July of 1946, she married John A. Ray, Jr.: they later divorced. During her marriage, Doris was a homemaker. In her forties, she began a second career as a medical receptionist. She volunteered for several organization and was a member of Beta Sigma Phi for over 50 years. She enjoyed snow skiing, gardening and traveling, especially to Europe. She moved to Redmond in 1999. She was predeceased by all her siblings and their spouses. She is survived by daughter Rhonda McLain and husband Mac; son Rodney Ray; grandson, Rian Burke; granddaughter Michelle Shelenski, and husband, Greg; step-grandchildren Chris McLain and wife Kim Matulef, and Alison Heath and husband Michael; five great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews. Interment will take place at Evergreen Cemetery, Ontario, OR. In lieu of flowers, donations to the American Cancer Society, Multiple Sclerosis Society or to Hospice of Redmond. Many thanks to the staff of The Heights Assisted Living and Hospice of Redmond for their loving care.

Funeral Home:

Redmond Memorial Chapel

717 SW 6th Street

Redmond, OR

US 97756