

Dorothy Elizabeth Jess Overlund

September 22, 1920 - July 15, 2013

Dorothy Elizabeth Overlund, 92, passed away peacefully at St. Charles Hospital in Redmond. Born to Emanuel and Jennie Jess on September 22, 1920 in Corvallis, Oregon where she grew up and graduated from Corvallis High School in 1938. Dorothy's second marriage was to Harold N. Overlund on July 7, 1948. They raised their combined family in Oregon starting in Toledo, then Oakridge, Walterville, Gilchrist and Crescent. After Harold's death in 1994, she moved to Redmond where she has resided for 18 years. She loved to read, cook, feed the wild birds, hear about her many grandchildren and follow her favorite team, the Boston Red Sox. She never missed a game on television. Dorothy is preceded in death by her husband Harold, her sister Iona Perkins, brothers Dude and Gordon Jess (all of Corvallis), her daughter Ann Stewart of Redmond, and her son-in-law Roger Cowart of Portland. She leaves behind five children: Judy Jones (Dan) of Portland, Wally Overlund (Joye) of Clatskanie, Dotti Cowart of Portland, Norm Overlund (Kathy) of Eugene, and Darrell Overlund of Redmond, 15 grandchildren and 24 great-grandchildren. Internment will be held at Redmond Memorial Cemetery. She will be remembered fondly by family and friends at a Celebration of Life in September.
