“ Grandpa warmly welcomed me to the family when I first started dating his grandson Jimmy. I was so glad to have such a kind grandfather-in-law and honored when I asked him if I may call him Grandpa and he said yes. He taught me how to play horseshoes, which I enjoyed and he definitely had fun teaching. I loved chatting with both him and Grandma (Gloria Elliott). They both would share tips on how to make a successful and long-lasting relationship, and I admired them both. We miss you dearly Grandpa.

“ Grandpa was an amazing person who I learned a lot of life lessons from. Very much enjoyed the time we spent together elk hunting, camping, playing horse shoes and having fun working on the ranch. He is greatly missed and I am happy that I had such an amazing and loving grandfather.

“ So very sorry to hear that Ed passed. He was a valued member of Redmond Fire Department, serving our communities for nearly 3 decades. I had the pleasure of working with him and stepped into his boots when he retired. My thoughts and prayers are with him family. Ret. Fire Captain Steve Pengra
