

Elaine Jane Watts

February 22, 1929 - May 4, 2018

Born in Alhambra California to Adas and Ellen Talley, she joined a brother Jr. She enjoyed sharing stories of her happy childhood; Sleeping on benches at all night revivals while her Dad preached the word of God, living in Honolulu and walking to school barefoot through the sugarcane fields, and feeding the birds with her beloved Grandpa. In 1948 Elaine married Richard Watts, they spent 48 years together before his passing. They moved to Redmond Oregon in 1991. She enjoyed camping, fishing, gambling and the beauty of Central Oregon. Elaine is survived by three daughters and their families- Susan and Al LaChance, Shirley and Bill Jackson, and Janet and Harry Westmoreland. She also leaves behind many grandchildren and great grandchildren. Elaine won her two-year battle with cancer in the loving care of the Redmond Hospice nurses and staff. The family would like to thank them for their support. Graveside Service will be held at the Redmond Memorial Cemetery, 3545 S Canal Blvd., Friday, May 11, 2018 at 2:00 PM
