George Eldon Noyes was born July 12, 1925 to Fred F. and Mary Carpenter Noyes. Born and raised in Independence, Oregon, he graduated from grade and high school where he was active in band and choral groups and lettered in baseball.

He was preceded in death by both parents and one sister, Polly. He is survived by widow, Carol, with whom he celebrated their 74th wedding anniversary December 30, 2019. He is also survived by daughter Kathleen Horres and son Randy Noyes (Judi Hamson), and grandchildren Nicholas and Valerie Horres.

Mr. Noyes spent 14 years in retail hardware and served Pacific Power in Springfield, Independence, Corvallis and Redmond, Oregon. After retirement in 1987, Mr. & Mrs. Noyes continued to live in Redmond, though spent their winters in Yuma, Arizona until 2003. They were both active in church work and both enjoyed gardening together, though it was only Mr. Noyes who possessed a love for the golf green, on which he played for many years. His family continues to celebrate the memory of his famous stories, wonderfully jolly laughter and his playful humor which he held onto until the end of his days.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date.

“ Our buddy George was just plain FUN! We surprised him on his 90th birthday with a party at McDonalds with all his gym and coffee gang in attendance. We gave him a Superman t-shirt and The Flash jockey shorts. Great fun. Sure enough he showed up at the gym in his t-shirt. When asked where his undershorts were, he replied, "I got em on. Wanna see?" Hehehe! What a guy!
