

George A. Schwartz

April 3, 1947 - May 23, 2021

George A. Schwartz, age 74, of Redmond, Oregon, passed away May 23, 2021. George was born April 03, 1947 in Seattle, WA to Ernie and Merle Schwartz. George attended Lincoln High School in Seattle. After finishing High School George served in the US Air Force during the Vietnam War.

After returning home from military service George attended and graduated from Boise State University. While in Boise, George married his wife, Gloria (Hallett-Reimer) in 1981. They shared 40 wonderful years together.

George worked as an airplane pilot for Air Midwest, Wein Air Alaska, and then spent 28 years flying for the Department of Energy (Bonneville Power Administration). He retired in the fall of 2010 and moved from Vancouver, WA to Redmond, OR to be close to his daughter and family.

Before old age set in George enjoyed golfing and hunting. He played cribbage with his Wife and they enjoyed traveling to the Oregon Coast. Prior to COVID they would travel over at least twice a month. George and Gloria were able to sneak in a trip and spent a week at the Coast this year for Mother's Day. George was a member of St. Thomas Catholic Church, Redmond, Oregon.

George is survived by his Wife (Gloria); his daughter and Son-in-Law, Kristin & Dr. Richard Gilmore; his granddaughter, Bradee Grace Gilmore; all of Redmond, OR; His sister, Candis Schwartz; and his brother, Robert Schwartz; both of Seattle, WA.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Ernie and Merle Schwartz.

In keeping with George's wishes, a Mass or Funeral Service will not be held.
