

Ivan Charles Romanoff

July 31, 1925 - March 15, 2012

Ivan served in the Canadian military as a member of the rifle marksman division. In 1951 Ivan immigrated to the US, he worked many years as a body and fender repairman for various auto repair businesses. He worked the last 10 years as an electrician at the Oregon State Capitol Building retiring in 1984. After his retirement Ivan spent his time doing what he enjoyed best restoring old wagons and many other old horse drawn equipment. He had a reverence for all nature, he spent countless hours in total stillness as birds and especially small cottontail and jack rabbits, they would enter into his home to retrieve food he had set out for them. Ivan is survived by 2 sisters; Verna Wilson of Vancouver B.C. and Thirsa Thompson of Beaverlodge, Alberta, Canada, and many friends. He was preceded in death by his wife, parents, 3 brothers and 1 sister.
