

Joseph E. Froehlich

February 26, 1929 - February 23, 2019

Joseph Edward Froehlich, 89, and long-time Redmond resident, passed away February 23, 2019, at his son's residence in Redmond. Memorial services are being planned for a later date. Redmond Memorial Chapel has been entrusted with arrangements. Joseph was born February 26, 1929, in Corpus Christi, TX, to Joseph Edward and Laura Mabel (Dezzio) Froehlich. As a child, the family moved to Yakima, Washington where he attended school. Joseph later lived in Prosser, WA, where he worked as a mechanic in the John Deere Dealership before moving to central Oregon in the 1960's. Joseph worked for over 30 years as a mechanic at Central Tractor in Redmond before retiring and going back to work at Abbas Auto Repair. Joseph enjoyed 4-wheeling, hunting and collecting and shooting firearms. He will be dearly missed by his 2 children, Rick (Jodi) Froehlich and Jo (Ken) Wheaton all of Redmond; a brother, Harvey and sister, Barbara, both of Washington; and 4 grandchildren, Dawn, Julie, Cori and Shelby. He was preceded in death by several brothers and sisters and a son, Jerry.
