

Lawrence A. Monical

December 28, 1946 - March 29, 2017

Lawrence A Monical (1946-2017) died unexpectedly on March 29 in Redmond where he had lived much of his life. Larry was born in Spokane, WA but grew up on a Central OR dairy farm before moving to Redmond when his parents, Dallas Monical and Olive Henderson Monical, opened first a cafe on Hwy 97 and then Monicals Char Broiler on 6th St. He graduated from Redmond High School and the University of Oregon, majoring in journalism. He worked for the Oregonian as well as other newspapers but returned to Redmond several years ago. He was predeceased by his parents and sister, Donna Monical. He is survived by his brother, Glen Monical of Redmond, aunt, Lucille Monical of Eugene, and many cousins. His keen mind, creativity, deep curiosity, dry sense of humor and caring heart will be sorely missed.
