“ Lee was a good and faithful wife to my good friend, Dick. He loved her, respected her, and cherished her. They are together once again, in mind, soul, and heart.

“ My beloved sister, who did many things for me growing up, as she was eleven years older than I, I will miss her, but have many fond memories that will remain until I see her again on the other side and share the new life beyond death with her.

“ Lee was my Avon lady from 1974 until she retired from Avon, and followed me to several businesses and locations in Redmond. She was a beautiful, wonderful lady who I enjoyed seeing every two weeks and not just for the products she sold. My thoughts go out to her loved ones.
