

Leona Pat Barker McAndie

February 26, 1927 - February 8, 2016

Redmond, Oregon Heaven was ready for spunk, sass, and spark and just shy of her 89 birthday she was received into heaven ready to dance! Leona was born in Pontiac, Michigan and died at her home in Redmond, OR. She came to Central OR with her first husband Clarence "Chuck" Barker in 1950. They bought an 80-acre farm in Terrebonne, OR for $22,000. They moved to Redmond, OR in 1960. Her husband Chuck and his father built the house she lived in until her death 56 years! Leona was an only child. Her parents were Leonard and Lula (Peterson) Matson. She has been married twice. She was married to Chuck for 30 years. She was married to Ian "Andy" McAndie for 25 years she died in 2003. She has had two loving companions Ross Curry (deceased) and she leaves her current companion Doug Sanders who took loving care of her during her declining health. Leona is much loved and will be greatly missed by her 4 children: Barbara Arnett, Bill Barker (Cindy), Ray Barker now deceased (Elaine) and Mari Linn Burris (Pat) all residing in Central OR. She also leaves a legacy of 7 grandchildren, 10 great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild. She worked during WWII interviewing men being discharged from the service, hand-picked potatoes, worked for an optometrist and in retirement she was a "demo lady" for 39 years in grocery stores. She also enjoyed sewing, crocheting, and gardening. She was well taken care of by Home Instead and most recently Right at Home and Partners in Care/Hospice. The family would welcome contributions to these fine caregivers. There was a private family gathering to celebrate her life with Pastor Kevin Seibold of the Southwest Heights Pentecostal Church.
