

Loran Duane Poage

September 5, 1929 - October 7, 2013

Loran D. Poage of Redmond, Oregon died October 7, 2013 at the age of 84. Loran was born September 5, 1929 in Denver, Colorado to Vernon and Arba (Davis) Poage. Loran joined the US Air Force and served his country for 4 years, he was stationed in Japan during the Korean War. On December 7, 1963 Loran married Carolyn Mary Sheridan. They resided in California and Moses Lake, WA before settling in Central Oregon 36 years ago. Loran worked as a farmer while living in Washington and found a true passion for horse ranching after they moved to Central Oregon. After retiring Loran found a great interest in sports and became a huge fan. He and Carolyn were members of St. Francis Catholic church while living in Bend and then St. Thomas after moving to Redmond. He is survived by his daughter and son in law Kathleen (Tony) Kuper, grandchildren; Kayla (Jake) Starmer, Emily and Anthony. He was preceded in death by his wife Carolyn Poage on October 28, 2007. A rosary will be held Friday October 11, 2013 at 9:15 am at St. Thomas Catholic Church with a funeral mass to follow at 10:00 AM, burial at Deschutes Memorial Gardens will follow.

Funeral Home:

Redmond Memorial Chapel

717 SW 6th Street

Redmond, OR

US 97756

Tribute Wall

KR

“ We have certainly missed seeing Loran since moving to Redmond. Very sorry to hear that he is gone from among us. We know that he will be missed. Ken & Julie Roberts

Ken & Julie Roberts - April 03, 2017 at 12:00 AM

LR

“ Kathleen, Tony & family, My deepest sympathy! I only knew him for two weeks but felt as if I had known him a long time. He was so very appreciative of anything I did for him!

Leta Ann Reckmann - April 03, 2017 at 12:00 AM