

Lottie Hannah Flint

February 11, 1913 - January 24, 2022

Lottie Hannah Parker Flint was born February 11, 1913, in Willow Creek, Montana. The daughter of Fredrick John Parker and Hannah Lottie (Badgley) Parker. She was the youngest of her six siblings. Lottie passed away in Redmond, Oregon on January 24, 2022, at the age of 108 years.

Lottie was born and raised in Willow Creek, Montana and attended school there. She married Russell Thom Flint in Boulder, Montana in 1932. They spent many years in Montana working and raising their family. In 1958, the family relocated to Redmond, Oregon due to a work transfer for her husband.

Lottie enjoyed gardening and often said how much better food tasted when you grew it yourself. She enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren, especially during the summer when they could spend more time. Adventures with grandma included visiting Petersen's Rock Garden, Lucile's Egg Farm, swimming in Elk Lake, riding horses from dawn to dusk, and the amazing picnic lunches she packed for every trip.

Lottie was preceded in death by her husband of 79 years, Russell Thom Flint; her parents and siblings. Granddaughter Jennifer Lynn Flint Edmonds Conley, infant great grandson Matthew Jeffrey Edmonds and infant great great granddaughter Athena Marie Aguilera.

Lottie is survived by her children Fred R. Flint and wife Joy, of Pony, Montana; Kathleen Jo Copenhaver of Redmond, Oregon; Charlotte Holland of Canby, Oregon; five grandchildren, nine great grandchildren and five great great grandchildren.

Lottie will be laid to rest in Pony, Montana.
