

Lynda Endicott

August 21, 1951 - November 29, 2014

Lynda R. Endicott peacefully passed away with her family at her side on November 29, 2014, in Redmond, Oregon after a short bout with severe pneumonia. She was born to John and Joanne Krueger in Seattle, WA, on August 21, 1951. Lynda is survived by her husband, George, Mayor of Redmond, OR; her daughters, Michelle (Marc Berlin), Kimberly (Shawn Coffey); grandchildren Addison, Kaden, Maya and Jonah; her brothers Mark and Robert (Chip) Krueger; and her in-laws, Everett and Betty Endicott of Redmond. Lynda led an interesting life. Being the quiet and private person she was, few know that she spent many years working for the Central Intelligence Agency. She also worked for various private sector companies as the family traveled around the world. Much of Lynda's life was focused on a balance between a career and the needs of the family. She achieved that very well. Lynda was the rock of the family. She was a wife, a mother, and a nurturer. She was the one that was always there. As the girls got older, Lynda switched from full-time to part-time so she could be home when the kids got home. Throughout his career George's work required extensive travel, so it was Lynda who kept the home fires burning. The family is better off by having Lynda as its heart. We shall miss her greatly. A Celebration of Life will be held at the City Center Church 549 SW 8th Street, Redmond, Oregon 97756 on Thursday, Dec 4th at 11:00 AM.
