

Maridee Frazer Crouch

December 6, 1944 - May 19, 2014

Maridee Crouch of Redmond, Oregon passed on May 19, 2014 at the age of 69. She was born December 6, 1944 in San Jose, California to Loren and Geraldine (Townsend ) Frazer. She attended school and graduated from Springfield High School and she still kept in touch with most of her high school classmates. On June 10, 1966 she married Stephen Crouch in Eugene, Oregon. They lived in several places over the years including, Novato, CA, Eugene, OR, Arvada, CO, and Eagle River, AK before settling in Redmond, OR for the last 11 years. While living in Eagle River Maridee worked as a librarian in the Anchorage Municipal Library System for almost 16 years, she loved reading. Maridee and Steve were members of the Community Presbyterian Church in Redmond where she also served as a deacon. She is survived by her husband Steve Crouch; a daughter Ann Bowman; two sons Aaron and Matthew Crouch and her brother James Frazer. She was preceded in death by a son Jon White; and two brothers Bob and Bill Frazer. A memorial service will be held at a later date at the Redmond Community Presbyterian church. Donations can be made to Hospice of Redmond or Community Presbyterian Church in her name.

“ I worked with Maridee at the Chugiak Eagle River Branch Library. Maridee was my partner in crime. She's could keep a straight face better than anyone I've ever met. I hope u r still someone who loves to laugh, joke, and play tricks on people wherever ur soul may be. I miss ur sense of humor so much. Working with Maridee was a pleasure I will never forget. I truly miss you!
