Patricia Eleanor Majchrowski

12 March 1946 – 28 November 2025

Patricia Eleanor Majchrowski, beautiful and beloved wife of Thomas Francis Majchrowski, passed away on 28 November 2025 at the Diamante Resort in Cabo San Lucas—a place that always brought her peace, and happiness.

Born on 12 March 1946 in Fall River, Massachusetts, to Eleanor and John Foulds, Pat lived a life defined by deep love, purpose, and thoughtful grace.

She earned her BA from the University of Massachusetts in 1968 and married Tom the following year, beginning a lifelong partnership rooted in respect, commitment, love, and enduring values. Together they raised two children, Shelli Whitfeld and Tom Michael Majchrowski, and later embraced the joys of grandchildren, Gracie and Grant.

Throughout their life together, Pat supported Tom with resilience, steadiness, and unwavering devotion. In their early years, she worked as a medical technologist while he completed graduate school, guided by her belief in him and in the future. During Tom's Air Force career, as their family moved from one base to another, Pat approached every transition with strength and pragmatism. For her children, she was a compass—offering wisdom, stability, and a gentle guiding hand. Later, her career took several paths, but it was her work as a librarian in Burke, VA that brought her the greatest fulfillment.

Pat was an intense and attentive listener. She spoke sparingly, but always with logic and understated cleverness. When asked for her thoughts, she reflected carefully, offering fresh perspectives that guided friends and family. In her quiet, perceptive way, Pat embodied the spirit of Scripture: “I am the bread of life. I will give you more,” intuitively sensing what others needed even before they did, leaving a profound imprint on all who knew her. Her love for her family—and especially for Tom—needed no words; it was expressed through her actions, grace, and constancy. She was a remarkable woman whose perceptive nature, grounded demeanor, and deep love left a lasting impression.

Pat loved to travel, delighting in the discovery of new people, places, and experiences. She approached the world with the same thoughtful attention she gave her loved ones—watching, listening, observing, and appreciating. She enjoyed sampling new foods, exploring different cultures, observing wildlife, and celebrating the unique beauty of each place she visited. At home, she cherished golfing with the Senior Women at Juniper Golf Club, hiking, skiing, gardening, and reading. Her conversion to Catholicism at St. Thomas Church brought her deep spiritual connection, enriching her soul and offering lasting peace.

Pat will be deeply missed by her husband, children, grandchildren, family, and friends—each of whom carries the lasting imprint of her thoughtful grace, quiet wisdom, and enduring love.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday, 16 December 2025, at 10.30 a.m. at St. Thomas Church, 1720 NW 19th Street, Redmond followed by a reception at 3:00 p.m. at Juniper Golf Course, 1938 SW Elkhorn Ave, Redmond.

Family and friends are warmly invited to celebrate her life and legacy.
