

Ruby Jeanette Schlaht Kraus

April 24, 1935 - February 22, 2015

Ruby Jeanette Schlaht was born to Reubin and Louise Schlaht in Twin Falls, Idaho on April 24, 1935. Ruby died February 22, 2015 after sustaining an unexpected viral infection of the heart leading to severe heart failure. Rubys family, which included siblings; Bill, Diane and Jim, settled in Scapoose, Oregon during her high school years. There, Ruby met and married Gene Gross in 1954. Genes parents, Tex and Gin thought of her as their own daughter. Gene and Ruby lived for a time in tiny Blocksburg, California where Gene began logging. They lived in a tiny single wide trailer where Ruby began raising their three young children. Ruby and Gene moved back to Oregon and eventually settled in McMinnville. They divorced in the 1970s. Ruby married Ron Kraus in 1988. They lived in Sunriver, Tucson and Redmond. Ruby loved to read, play golf and bridge, and spend time with her family. Her friends were very important to her. She loved their dog, lady and cat, Spooky. Ruby was always, Dressed to the nines and would never leave the house without make-up and every hair in place. Ruby was preceded in death by her parents, and sister, Diane. Survivors include her husband, Ron; her three children, Cheryl, Terrie and Kenneth; Rons children, Tom (Cathy) and Dan; eight grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; brothers, Bill (Lloydean) and Jim (Julia). Please join us for a Celebration of Life at 1:00pm March 14th, Juniper Golf Course, 1938 SW Elkhorn Avenue, Redmond, Oregon. Bring your favorite stories about Ruby to share. Ruby was cared for in her final days by the staff at St. Charles Redmond. Family would like to express thanks to them for their kindness and skilled care.

“ So sorry for you loss, Ron and yours and Rubys family. While I havent seen Ruby in many years (maybe since a five year class reunion Scappoose High School), we were good friends when we both went to Milwaukee Jr. Hi and after our families moved to Scappoose the summer before our Sophomore year at Scappoose. Rest in peace, Ruby.

“ We met Ruby and Ron when we moved to Sunriver. Played lots of golf, lots of evening get togethers. Ruby was a fine lady and all who new her will be saddened by her absence. We had some delightful trips together to Mexico, and the red rock country of Utah and Arizona when we all lived here. in Tucson. Ron, take it easy, we miss you also. sorry we will not be able to get to the memorial service.
