

Scott David Montgomery

November 29, 1952 - September 4, 2012

Scott enjoyed skiing, auto cross, mountain climbing and was an avid car enthusiast. Also known as The 5th Beetle he was a rock n roll aficionado. He was most happy telling lots of jokes hoping to make you smile and laugh. A long time truck driver, Scott had also worked as your local garbage man. At his passing he was the delivery driver for Home Depot. Scott loved to hang out at Red Dog and 7th Street Brew Pubs, in Redmond, where he would be greeted in Cheers Norm-like fashion. Scott joins his younger brother and leaves behind his wife Mary L. Montgomery of Redmond, his parents Norma and Monty Montgomery of Bend, step-children and grandchildren and tons of longtime friends. If you met Scott you loved him. Always joking and smiling with a hug. At this time service details are pending.
