“ I will miss my sister very much. She was always there for me and good times and bad times. She had a sense of humor and she always had time to listen to you no matter what she was going through. I know I will see her again one day. She was beautiful inside and out and she had many friends that cared about her at Brookdale. She will be sorely missed. I'm so grateful that I had a chance to talk to her before she went into the hospital and all the time after that we would talk on the phone. When I first moved to New Mexico she came to visit and her daughter Elizabeth surprised her as well along with her nephew Neil. It was a wonderful reunion. I will miss her and think of her everyday.

“ I will miss my sister very much. I could always talk to her about anything and she would always listen and give her advice. She came to visit me when I moved to New Mexico and we had a good time visiting. Her daughter Elizabeth surprised her and came as well as her nephew Neil. I'm so grateful I talked to her just before she got really sick. I know I'll see her again.

Theresa: Beautiful (inside and out); loving, caring funny, classy and stylish.

I have been going over old photos, remembering her and all the good old times with her and the rest of the family. Although she was far we tried to stay in touch but we missed her so much. From day one Theresa and I hit it off. An outsider would not have non I had recently joined the family from the way she treated me. I loved her dearly. She was funny and quick witted and always had a positive attitude and a smile despite what she might have been going through. She cared deeply and loved her family and friends, always concerned for everyone. I'll never forget how she used to text me at all hours of the night to tell me how fast the Amaryllis wax bulbs I used to send her were growing and how amazed she was that they did not need to be watered. She would tell me she loved the flower it made her the most popular resident since everyone would stop by to see her flowers. She was so exited when I became a grandmother, she would call me after Neal would send her photos and videos of Kayla and we'd go on and on about her antics. I am so glad that we were able to see her in late August. I will never forgot how happy she was and how much we laughed. I will always miss you - sister.
