Virginia was born December 7, 1927, in Mabton, Washington, to Roy Sylvester and Elsie Marie (Gordon) Harris. She grew up in large family near Prosser, WA, the third oldest of 18 siblings. Virginia fell in love with her late husband, James Stanley McVey, marrying on June 29, 1945 in Prosser. While James was in the military, they lived in Georgia until moving back to Oregon. “ She loved to camp, I have many memories of camping with her. She also was an excellent cook, her breakfast hash browns are the best and we all try to repeat how she did them. Hard working lady and she will be missed by us all. Love you Grandma Jenni.

“ I will always remember Mimi's laughter and smile. She was a very special woman. Her laughter only made me laugh harder. I looked forward to family functions just to see her and her smile. Love you Aunt Virginia. Always in my heart
